PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant and to incorporate the violations contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court on 10/08/24, 10/18/24 and 10/23/24.

On March 21, 2024, a supervision intake was completed. Ms. Runkle signed a copy of her judgment acknowledging an understanding of the conditions imposed by the Court.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
10	Special Condition #3a ordered on November 13, 2024: Defendant shall reside in a residential reentry center (RRC) for a period up to 180 days. Defendant shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility and shall participate in programs offered by the facility at the direction of the supervising officer. Supporting Evidence: Sabrina Runkle allegedly violated the terms of her supervised release by violating rules of the RRC which resulted in her being terminated from the program, on or about December 26, 2024. On December 12, 2024, Sabrina Runkle completed inpatient treatment and transitioned to residing at an RRC as required. On December 23, 2024, the undersigned officer made contact with Ms. Runkle's case manager at the RRC. there. The case manager advised they have warned Ms. Runkle about the behaviors on two occasions. As a result, Ms. Runkle and the two other males residing at the RRC were prohibited from being within 10 feet of each other.

On December 26, 2024, the undersigned officer was contacted by the director of the RRC. He advised that Ms. Runkle was found to have a male resident in her room for approximately 2 hours. A review of the security footage showed Ms. Runkle approached the control desk in what appeared to be an effort to distract staff while the male resident exited her room.

Because of her continued noncompliance with the RRC rules, they are terminating her placement at the RRC.

A warrant is respectfully recommended in this matter.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court to issue a warrant and incorporate the violations contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
